Developing a School Charter

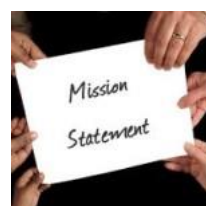

We are hoping to create a School Charter. We require input from pupils, parents, community and staff to ensure that our charter is meaningful to the entire school community! A "charter" is usually some form of contract or agreement (like the constitution), while a "mission statement" states goals and common links in an organisation. more »

Reviewing Mission Statement

Below is our current Mission Statement, which was developed during our first school year; 2011/2012. As we have grown in population significantly since then, the Board of Management feel it is time to review our Mission Statement. We are currently inviting suggestions and feedback from parents/guardians, pupils, staff, Board of Management and community in relation more »
