Re: Chestnut Class Homework

Dear Parents/Guardians,

The children will now be receiving a reading book and response copy for their homework. The person who helps the child with their homework reads the book each night with the child, on Wednesday evening the child then writes about their favourite part of the story and draws a picture. The page in each child's copy to be completed will be dated. Children will receive their folders on a Monday, in which they will find their homework for the week. We advise that this work be spread over three nights – Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday and the folder returned on a Thursday morning for correction.

This week children will receive:

- Number formation sheet → Complete two lines per night
- Story book and response copy → Read each night and on Wednesday write about their favourite part and draw a picture
- Their name in cursive writing → Complete at least two lines per night

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me on andy@powerstownet.com or arrange to speak with me after school.

Kind regards,

Andy Flaherty

Chestnut Class Teacher
