Green Screen in Beech Class!

Powerstown ETNS got our very own green screen this week! Beech class took it upon themselves to learn how to use it! They've created these images which we will use as inspiration for creative writing! We had so much fun taking the pictures and photo-shopping them together! We're so proud of the final results but Continue Reading

5th & 6th Trip to Santry

This term, fifth and sixth class ran 42km over 8 weeks. This week, they finished their last two miles. Firstly, we ran with the Gaelscoil and then in Santry Stadium. Well done to all the children- they completed what was a huge challenge and showed great determination and resilience over the past eight weeks.

Ukulele & Choral Singing Performances

Our ukulele and choral singing performances will take place in the hall on the 26th of November 2019. Classes from 2nd to 6th will be showcasing their wonderful work from this term with Fergus from Fingal Music Academy. We were one of very few schools chosen by Fingal Arts Council to get funding for music. Continue Reading
