

Powerstown Educate Together National School, Tyrrelstown, Dublin 15

4th Class Intercultural May Projects!

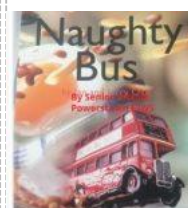

Beech and Laurel have been really hard at work for the month of May researching lots of different countries! To present their work, they have created a website with all their hard work on display since we can't show it off in the hall this year! This website is public so it can be shared Continue Reading

Read More

Senior Infants Wrote a Book!

Senior Infants have been really hard at work this week and have written a book! They have been reading all about the Naughty School Bus and this week they wrote stories about more of his adventures! Super impressive Senior Infants! Well done! Check out the full book here!

Read More

It's Sibling Week!

We are super impressed with amazing teamwork happening in your homes! We have seen lots of photos of brothers and sisters working together, helping each other and having fun together. We have noticed and been impressed by the help and support we have observed from older siblings, especially those in our school, for the younger children in the Continue Reading

Read More

Update from 3rd Class!

A huge well done to Rowan & Redwood on their amazing work for Intercultural May. We have received many amazing projects from the kids and we are super impressed by the level of work put in. We are also delighted to see the children spending time outside in the fresh air and fabulous weather.

Read More

1st Class Highlights!

First class has worked so hard this week. We have seen fantastic throwing and balancing skills, wonderful persuasive writing, self portraits and excellent subtraction skills. Well done on all your hard work as always. We are so proud of you!

Read More

Congratulations to Helen in Kamilah Class

Everyone at PETNS would like to say a big congratulations to Helen in 6th class! Helen recently wrote an article about the RDS Science Blast and submitted it to Clicnews. We've just found out that her article has been shortlisted for the top 10 and is featured on their homepage! Congratulations Helen! Irish Times is Continue Reading

Read More

PETNS Ice-Cream Day for Down Syndrome Ireland

Powerstown ETNS are asking all our families to continue to help us celebrate Ice-Cream Day at home this year! We'd like all our families to get behind the day in support of Down Syndrome Dublin, a fantastic cause that supports children, young people and adults with Down Syndrome live full and joyful lives. 🦋🦋 You can support it Continue Reading

Read More

Junior Infants May Highlights

Our Junior Infant pupils and team have been doing spectacular work over the last month. From learning nursery rhymes in different languages, speaking in Irish, reading postcards and stories, showcasing their creativity and maths skills, the list goes on. This fantastic video highlights some of the great work being done. Well done everyone!

Read More

Shout Out Friday 29/5/2020

Hi Everyone Hope you are all keeping safe and well! What a fantastic week! The weather has been amazing but the work being done by our pupils, parents and staff is just BRILLIANT! There are so many amazing assignments handed in daily, it is difficult to pick the highlights. We are loving the project work, Continue Reading

Read More

Congratulations to Keelin in 5th Class!

Congratulations to Keelin in 5th class, whose news report was featured on the Clicnews website this week. Well done Keelin!

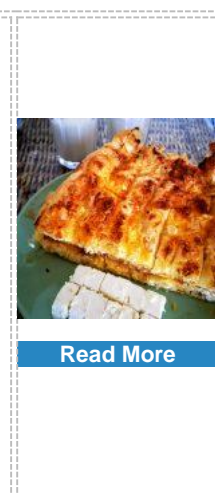

Intercultural May in 2nd Class!

2nd Class have been very busy doing projects for Intercultural May. They have made flags, researched interesting facts, looked at famous monuments and even cooked beautiful food from their chosen country. Some children are going to present their projects with the class over video chat on Friday. They are doing AMAZING work. Well done Lime Continue Reading

PTA Recipe Corner!

Check out Emil, Yanina's and Sofia's Tsoneva Bulgarian pastry 'Banitsa' Recipe! They served this delicious Bulgarian dish with a drink called 'Airjan' – yogurt mixed with water. Banista You will need: 16 sheets of Phyllo Dough (available to buy in specialised supermarkets)680g of Feta3 Large eggs1 tsp of Salt255g of butter (melted)240ml of milk Directions Continue Reading

Stories from 4th Class

4th Class have been hard at work recently and are working on not 1, but 2 websites! We finally have one ready to share with you and are excited to show off our work! We have been working on the novel George's Marvellous Medicine through Google Classroom and have done lots of great work based Continue Reading

THIS WEEK IS SIBLING WEEK!

We are super impressed with amazing teamwork happening in your homes! We have seen lots of photos of brothers and sisters working together, helping each other and having fun together. We have noticed and been impressed by the help and support we have observed from older siblings, especially those in our school, for the younger children Continue Reading

Read More

Shout out Friday 22/5/2020

Happy Friday folks! Hope you all had a good week. Google Classrooms has been super busy. I loved exploring them and seeing the fantastic work and fun that is happening at home! The Intercultural May projects are OUT OF THIS WORLD. I am really looking forward to seeing the finished products next week Thank you Continue Reading

Read More

To change your subscription, click here.

Facebook

Twitter

Youtube