

Powerstown Educate Together National School, Tyrrelstown, Dublin 15

Senior Infants Update!

Our first highlight from Senior Infants is this amazing canvas painting by Pranav! It's a painting of Lord Krishna – who saves his folks from heavy rain and flood by lifting a huge mountain with his pinky finger and providing shelter to all, referred popularly as Govardana Giridhara. Amazing work Prinav! Senior Infants also tried Continue Reading

Read More

Junior Infants – Our Grandparents

This week Junior Infants have been working hard at creating projects about their Grandparents. They drew lots of pictures of their grandparents and were practicing writing their grandparents names. They were busy calling, skyping and zooming grandparents interviewing them and finding out about what school was like when they were younger and what toys they Continue Reading

Read More

6th Class Collages – We are Unique!

Sixth class were super busy this week preparing for their graduation but they took some time out to read the picture book 'Be You!' by Peter H. Reynolds. After reading the book each child made a collage using photos, words and drawings to represent all the things that made them unique. They thought about their likes, Continue Reading

Read More

Virtual Sports Week – Feedback from Kamilah!

Kamilah came together online to give feedback and opinions on how Virtual Sports Week went for them. Thanks for the feedback guys. Hope you all enjoyed the week!

Read More

Intercultural May in Senior Infants!

Some more highlights from our Intercultural May celebration! This time from Senior Infants! Some amazing work here Oak and Sycamore! Well done!

Read More

Shout Out Friday 12/6/2020

Amazing work again by the entire school community! It is so difficult for the teachers to pick out a handful of the work being submitted in Google Classroom Here is a few short highlights – but please also look at our Active Schools videos!!! Well done everyone on a fantastic Active School Week!!

Read More

Principal Update 12/6/2020

Hi everyone Just a quick update, to say well done on surviving week 13 on lockdown! Please keep an eye on your inbox next week for a questionnaire about distance learning and re-opening in August. On Wednesday June 24th you will be invited to the school to collect your child's art work and project work Continue Reading

Read More

To change your subscription, click here.

Facebook

Twitter

Youtube