Update from Senior Infants

Senior infants have been learning all about food this month. We enjoyed learning about how to make butter and decided to make some ourselves. It was hard work shaking the cream but it was worth it because our butter tasted yum!

Mid Term Message

Dear Parents/Guardians, What an amazing half-term we have had here in Powerstown ETNS. The staff are all delighted to be back in the building, with sound of children's voices in the corridors and children's work on display on the corridors! The hustle and bustle of school life brings about a sense of "new" normality for Continue Reading

Update from 3rd Class!

We have had a very busy week in the Redwood Class. We were busy working on our space projects and we presented our projects to our class on Friday. We have learned lots about the planets, the milky way, blackholes, meteors, stars, astronauts and more. We also completed some space art. We had the chance Continue Reading

Essential Travel to School – Level 5 Restrictions

As we are in Level 5 restrictions we are aware that many of our families live more than 5km from the school. We have had numerous requests for letters from parents. We spoke with our community Gardai and have been reassured that if you meet a Garda Checkpoint, your school journey is deemed essential. You Continue Reading

Remote Learning Guidance

The Department of Education recently released a document providing guidance on remote learning in a Covid 19 context. We reflected on our practices and possible opportunities to support our pupils who are adhering to HSE advice and are at home due to self isolating or restricting movements. We hope you find this document helpful.

Level 5 Restrictions – Staggered Home Times

As we enter Level 5 restriction on Wednesday at midnight, we will implement staggered home times from Thursday 22/10/2020. The congregation of parents and pupils at home time is a concern and the following staggered finish times should minimise the gathering of people. Junior infants will finish at 1pm. Senior Infants will finish at 1.10pm. Continue Reading
