PTA Update

This week we have some amazing news to share with the school community. PTA was able to secure a donation of 20 tiny Hazel trees for the school. Thanks so much for the staff who is looking after planting them! We are sure the kids will love to see the new additions once they are [...]

Shout Out Friday 22/1/21

WOW! Boys and girls, moms and dads, what an AMAZING week of work we have had here in Powerstown ETNS. We are loving see you all on our video calls, hearing your news, and even doing your phonics work and project brainstorms. The work being submitted is fantastic. I am loving seeing your copy work, [...]

Student of the Week 22/1/21

A huge congratulations to all our pupils and their parents for an amazing week of online learning. It was very difficult for teachers to choose just one child for student of the week, considering the amazing work being completed by you all. However, teacher had to pick just one and the following students were highly [...]
