

Language and Literacy

Oral Language Genre - Giving instructions/Our news

Story – The Little Engine that Could + Last Stop on Market Street - Poem – Bus, Bus, Drives around town, The Wheels on the Bus

Writing – Revising all letter formation through free writing

Writing Genre: procedural- Exposure to writing steps for travelling on the bus.

Phonics Revising all phonics and introducing consonant digraphs.

Revising Dolch words (List 1 & 2)

SESE

Geography

Living in the local community

Travelling on the bus – connecting towns. Job of bus driver and how a bus can help communities.

History

Sequencing

respond to and sequence stories of The Little Engine that Could & Last Stop on Market Street.

Science

Living Things

The Sunflower
Identifying parts of a sunflower and what it needs to grow. Creating sunflower art.

Maths and Numeracy

Number: Ready Set Go

- Arrange numbers in number lines.
- Vocabulary – more, less, next, before.
- Counting backwards and forwards up to 15

Capacity

Direct Teaching: Revising sorting objects in sets / 2D and 3D shapes

Music:

Performing: The Wheels on the Bus

Listening and responding: Listening to Greek music and looking at Greek musical instruments.

The Bus Station / Intercultural May

Art: Painting: Sunflower art

Construction: Junk art bus constructions / Large cardboard buses for Aistear

Gaeilge

Telifís

Cuir ____ ar siúl. Múch _____. (an teilifís, an raidió, an solas)

Cad atá ar an teilifís? Tá ____ ar an teilifís.

Tá an fear grinn _____. (ag canadh, ag damhsa, ag léim, ag rothaíocht, ag ithe, ag ól, ag rith, ag léamh, ag scríobh, ag gáire, ag súgradh, ag snámh)

Seo fear grinn. Cuir ____ ar an bhfear grinn.

Tá ____ air. (hata dearg, cóta bán, briste dubh, scairf ghlas, léine bhuí, geansaí gorm)

Tarraing _____. Dathaigh an briste _____. (dearg, bán, dubh, glas, buí, gorm)

Drama

Whole Class:

Travelling on the bus. Role playing passengers and bus driver.

Hot seat characters from stories in Literacy.

Freeze frame scenes from stories.

Learn Together

Intercultural May

- Investigating Greece – location on map, Greek stories and food.
- Art projects based on Greek stories
- Learn how to greet someone in Greek.

SPHE

You Can Do It Programme

Lessons 1-5 – Connie Confidence