

Powerstown Educate Together National School, Tyrrelstown, Dublin 15

Student of the Week Awards

Congratulations to everyone who earned an award this week!

Read More

PTA Update

Happy Friday Everyone! It is unbelievable how quick time flies with only 1 week left before midterm break. Next week will be our last chance to get Garda vetted. If you wish to apply please make sure you complete the form, photocopy your ID and proof of address and drop these into the green box [...]

Read More

Dyslexia support Group D15

The Dyslexia Support Dublin 15 Group is holding its first coffee morning for parents on Friday 22nd October 10-11am in Huntstown Community Centre in Dublin 15. They hope to have local TDs, Councillors, and Senators in attendance also. You can contact the group at dyslexiad15@gmail.com or via their Facebook page at Dyslexia Support Dublin 15

SUPPORT DUBLIN 15
In honour of it being Dyslexia Awareness Month we would like to welcome you to our
FIRST COFFEE MORNING.
Join us for a tea, coffee and a chat
@ Huntstown Community Centre
On Friday the 22nd October
@10am-11am
Hope to see you all there!!
Contact us @ dyslexiad15@gmail.com or find us on Facebook @ Dyslexia Support

Read More

DLD in multilingual children

'When should I seek professional help if my bilingual child does not speak, or shows performance which is low for his age when compared to his bilingual peers?' Raising bilingual/multilingual children is a joy but also raises all kinds of questions. Thanks to the International Association of Communication Sciences and Disorders we now have comprehensive [...]

Read More

Rose Class – Farming and the Food Process

As part of geography, history and science this month in the Rose Class – we have been studying the Industrial Revolution and its impacts on farming in Ireland and around the world today. We have also been looking at the impacts of soil fertility and water availability on settlement and city development, making links between [...]

Read More

Be a mask superhero!

Reminder to please wear a mask when on school grounds! Once you come through the gates of the school if travelling by foot or bike, or once you exit from your car, please make sure to be wearing your mask. Thank you for helping to keep the children and all members of our school community [...]

Read More

Contacting your child's teacher

We would like to remind you that if you have questions or queries for your child's class teacher you can contact them at their school email address. The email addresses for all staff are listed on our website on this page – Click here. Please remember that all staff are working with your children between [...]

Read More

Fancy Dress Fundraiser Friday 22nd October

Our Annual Fancy Dress Day is going ahead next Friday 22/10/2021. We are hoping all pupils and staff will come in wearing costumes, the more creative (or handmade) the better! As we cannot go ahead with our traditional Cake Sale, we are asking that each child bring in a slice of cake, muffin, cupcake or [...]

Read More

DLD Awareness Day – 15th October

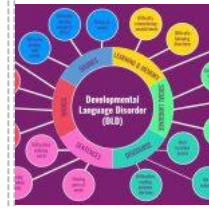

Hello Everyone, Friday the 15th October 2021 marks the 5th annual Raising Awareness of Developmental Language Disorder Awareness Day! The theme of this year's campaign is: #ThinkLanguage #Think DLD. The goal is to increase the early identification of DLD and support for students at school. A key part of this message is that: "Spoken [...]

Read More

DLD explained

Developmental Language Disorder (DLD) can be tricky to explain to other people, so @RADLD have created this handy 'DLD Bubble' resource. We know we've shared it before, but we think it's so good that everyone should see it. DLD is not the same in every person, so the 'DLD Bubble' is a tool. Not every [...]

Read More

DLD exists across all languages

Developmental Language Disorder (DLD) exists in every language of the world. DLD is not a difficulty with learning the school language as it can only be diagnosed when there is a difficulty in all languages spoken. In school it is easy to think that students who speak another language at home are just a bit [...]

Read More

RADLD (Raising Awareness of DLD)

Even if you've never heard of Developmental Language Disorder (DLD), you probably know someone with it. DLD is very common, and on average 2 children in every class of 30 have the condition. DLD is when a person has difficulty talking and understanding spoken language. Spoken words and sentences are challenging for people with DLD. [...]

Read More

Raising Awareness of DLD (Developmental Language Disorder)

It's Monday, so a school day (in most countries), so a great opportunity to take our video into school. It's less than 3 minutes long, and it focuses on how teachers can look out for Developmental Language Disorder. If you are a teacher, please share the video with colleagues. It links really nicely with the [...]

Read More

Maths Week – Parent and Child Workshops (October 16th)

Maths Week Ireland are running a great workshop for families interested in Maths on October 16th! Please see link below and get your place early:

<https://www.mathsweek.ie/2021/event/parent-and-kids-workshop/> Join international educator Steve Sherman, Chief Imagination Officer of livingmaths.com, in this hands-on workshop where he will introduce you to a range of tools and tips to help make maths [...]

Read More

To change your subscription, click here.

Facebook

Twitter

Youtube