

Powerstown Educate Together National School, Tyrrelstown, Dublin 15

HSE- significant rise in RSV/Bronchiolitis infections in young children

TO: All primary schools and SEN schools
FROM: Dr Abigail Collins, Consultant in Public Health Medicine; National Clinical Lead Child Health Public Health Dr Eamonn O'Moore, Director National Health Protection RE: HSE Public Health update – Significant rise in RSV/Bronchiolitis infections in young children DATE: 20 November 2023 We often see a large increase in infections [...]

Read More

Winter Fair: Wednesday 6th December

It's that time of year again! Our annual Winter Fair will take place on Wednesday 6th of December from 1-3.30pm. We have lots of festive fun and seasonal activities planned for you and your family to enjoy. Proceeds raised will contribute to the purchase of school playground equipment. Volunteers needed: If you would like to [...]

Read More

Toy Drive for the Winter Fair!

Dear parents and guardians, We are busy preparing for our annual Winter Fair on the 6th December. We will be holding a toy sale as part of our Winter Fair again this year. If you have any toys in saleable condition that you would like to donate, we will gladly accept them. Please drop any [...]

Read More

To change your subscription, click here.

Facebook

Twitter

Youtube